4. Dr. Jordan, on behalf of subcommittee two, made a motion to recommend approval of a proposal from the Department of Music for new course . Dr. Dailey seconded the motion. Discussion followed. There was concern (1) how a course could be required yet not provide any credit hours; (2) how is it billed and; (3) how does it count in a faculty load. Dr. Louis Young provided a written explanation addressing each concern. The recital is the culminating work of many one-credit-hour applied lessons taken over several terms, but in and of itself does not warrant a credit hour of work. This is a standard practice in university music programs
