1. INVESTMENTS

Subject to the direction of the president, the vice president for finance and administration shall be responsible for the management of the cash assets of the University of Central Arkansas. The vice president for finance and administration, or such other persons as authorized by the president, is authorized and directed to invest all funds not needed to meet current cash flow requirements. The university has cash and investments that are held by the State Treasury, the Bond Trustee and the UCA Foundation. The investment and collateralization of these assets is monitored by these other entities and their separate policies.

In investing university funds, the university shall seek to obtain the highest possible rate of return, with due consideration given to the dollar yield after taking into account the date of maturity, date the funds will be needed, the interest rate quoted, and the default risk factor of the investment.

- a. The university may invest in certificates of deposit with a depository institution that is a member of the Federal Deposit Insurance _____, provided that all invested monies in excess of the FDIC limit be collateralized according to the requirements of the university's collateralization policy.

Before investing in certificates of deposit, a formal bid shall be required from depository institutions. The institution submitting the highest stated rate of interest and complying with the university requirements will be awarded the bid. In the event the highest rate offered results in a tie, the bid will be awarded to the institution with the lowest bid amount.

universities. Under this service the funds chosen for investment will be limited to obligations of the United States; federal agency obligations; domestic and foreign bank certificates of deposit; commercial paper; high quality stocks and bonds; Euro-dollar obligations of U.S. banks; and repurchase agreements.

- ii. The university may invest cash or other gifts donated to the university directly in fully-guaranteed obligations of the United States or its agencies; in high quality stocks and bonds; or in other equities and interests.

In order to facilitate the management of university investments, the president is authorized to enter into the appropriate agreements with investment management services or brokers. In all investment transactions, the university's priority will be in the safety, liquidity, and control of its invested cash.

- c. The university may also invest in a short-term investment service with a depository institution that is a member of the FDIC, provided that all invested monies in excess of the FDIC limit are collateralized according to the requirements of the university's collateralization policy.

Before investing in said service, a formal bid must occur. The institution that submits the highest stated rate of interest, complies with the university's collateralization policy, and provides liquidity within 24-hours will be awarded the bid.

2. COLLATERALIZATIONS

In order to assure the security of the university's demand deposit accounts and its investments, the university's monies shall be fully, and continuously, collateralized whenever such investments/deposits exceed the limits of FDIC or other insurance. Pledged collateral for the university's deposits/investments must meet the following minimum requirements:

- a. The vice president for finance and administration will have authority to enter into a collateral agreement with depository institutions and custodian banks that conform to the collateral requirements stated in this policy.
- b. Pledged security shall be maintained by the
- c. Eligible security for deposits must consist of the following: direct obligations of the United States Government; obligations of agencies and instrumentalities created by act of the United States Congress and authorized thereby to issue securities or evidences of indebtedness; bonds of the University of Central Arkansas and; general obligation and revenue bonds issued by United States municipalities and political subdivisions. All pledged securities will have a Standard & Poor's and/or Moody's rating of at least .
